VISITING INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP POLICIES

Fees – All fees must be paid on or before entering the town site.

RV Vehicles – RV vehicle parking to be at the RV Park or designated dry camp area only. Day-use parking for RV's available by request only.

Camping – Camping will be in assigned camping area only.

Camp Fires – Campfires will be allowed at specified fire pit area only. Please use caution with all fires. Check online at idfg.idaho.gov/fire to check fire allowances or restrictions during your stay.

Animals – Dogs, cats, and any other pets must be controlled – either in a kennel or on a leash at all times. Horses will be allowed on site by special permit only. Discuss this with your reservation contact before planning to bring horses on site.

Alcohol – Due to the sensitive nature of the buildings and items found on the town site, alcohol is not permitted in either the buildings or on the premises.

Parking – Parking is allowed in specified parking areas only. No parking is allowed on the paved roadways.

ATV'S, Motorcycles, Snowmobiles – Usage of these vehicles is restricted to county roads only and to licensed drivers 16 years of age and over.

Firearms – Use of firearms on the town site is prohibited.

Houses / Cabins – Food or drinks are not allowed in the buildings. The Brick Store and Amusement Hall are the only exceptions to this rule.

Surrounding Area – The town site is surrounded by private property. You must gain permission before entering private property for any reason. Check with either your reservation contact or foundation member on site to determine who owns the land.

Activities Available – Historic building tours, shopping at the Brick Store, service projects, Handcart treks, RV hookup and dry camping, and fishing at nearby Chesterfield and 24 Mile reservoirs. The Amusement Hall and Pavilion are available for reunions, meals, dances, weddings, meetings, etc. A large grassy area is available for other group activities, although you must bring your own equipment. To find more nearby attractions, visit our website at www.historicchesterfield.org.

I acknowledge and accept these rules and conditions. I understand the violation of such rules and regulations may result in immediate expulsion from the town site without reimbursement of any funds.
